I am a Full Stack web developer working with Reacts and NodeJS. I have more than 8-years professional background in Mechanical Engineering & Business Development.

I'm looking to apply for a position as a Front-End or a Full-Stack Developer. I'm positive, enthusiastic and I love to learn new things. I have experience building projects with React and React Native.

I attended V School and Nucamp were I studied Full-Stack web development.

Currently I attend training at California Science and Technology University for Full Stack Developer Program. I am currently looking for a job.
